- A translation of Violer par un Sigma by MiaQc

I've been raped in the past. It's not a pleasant, enjoyable or at all romantic experience. However, I didn't expect to be raped by a machine.

My memories are hazy. My head aches. My body shakes and jerks as his big penis moves in and out of my vaginal entrance.

His large hands caress, rub, squeeze and pull my nipples and breasts. His mouth is on my neck. His body is cold, lifeless. He's not human.

He didn't tell me his name before ripping off my clothes and molesting me, but there was this Greek letter on his outfit worthy of a king. A Sigma.

How did I end up here, at his mercy? I remember crossing the stones, but why? I would never abandon my beloved Jamie. Did I want to help someone? Find Brianna in the future?

Stone circles allow for time travel, not to other worlds and dimensions. Yet I know that this world is not my future. A future where robots called Marverick Reploids has conquered humanity. Where this Sigma is the ruler.

Sigma continues to rape me. After ejaculating what appears to be semen inside me, he turns me over and rams his cold dick into my ass. I don't want to, but I scream.

I wish Jamie were here. I want him to come and save me, but he can't. He can't cross the stones. It's for the best. After all, what could he do against the Marverick Reploid king?

Suddenly, a woman's voice calls Sigma. He ignores her and continues his aggression on me. Then I hear a door open.

"What are you doing with that woman?" Asks an angry female voice.

I couldn't see her because of my head's position.

"My sweet queen." Sigma replies. "What are you doing here?"

"If you want to fuck someone, you've already got me!"

"My beautiful Lily, I..."

"NO! I don't want to hear your stupid excuses! I've already asked you, even begged you, to stop raping women for entertainment. And you continue to do it anyway!"

"I can't help it, my queen. I like to dominate, to have pleasure with women's bodies, to break them, and I don't want to break you, my little light."

Lily coldly orders him to let me go. Sigma doesn't like that. Before I can get up, he leaves me, grabs Lily and storms out of the room. I hear Lily screaming, yelling at Sigma to let her go.

I get up again, trembling. I take a sheet to cover my body and leave the room. I must escape this place and return to the stone circle.

As I search for the exit, I hear Sigma and Lily moaning loudly. Is he raping her? I don't know. I shouldn't think like this, but I don't care. I have to get back to Jamie, back to my world, back to the past. That's all that matters.

I don't know how I did it, as there are guards in many places, but I managed to leave this strange futuristic castle. Now all I have to do is get back to the stone circle. I don't think I can tell Jamie what happened to me. Knowing him, he'll want to avenge me and that's impossible. Jamie, my love, please forgive me.

Note: This Lily isn't the same as the Lily character in "I am a Barrier".
